

Collier and /

[illegible]

Mr. Washburne said that latter is true, and ever says it is not true states what is false. I was called on under any operation of embezzlement to make a personal explanation, in reply to a member, I would not be a member, who had committed a crime would not be to a member who ran away would not be to a member who had left his name; it would not be to a member whose record in this House is covered with corruption and crime.

KY and other radicals with a man proved less amiable to his friends than his constituents, his politics, his religion or his God.

Mr. Windom gave notice that he should offer a resolution of censure on Mr. Washburn Adjourned.

THE PACIFIC.

Rg Telegraph for The Democrat.)

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION IN CALIFORNIA
LATELY FROM OREGON AND WASHINGTON AFFAIRS IN ALASKA.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 1.—The Democratic convention last night nominated Presidential electors, Thos. J. Henkle, P. Kewen, E. T. Wallace, E. J. Beid-

Arrived steamer Golden City, from Advices from Portland, Oregon, on the arrival of George Woods, overlake New York. The work of grading the Central railroad is progressing at the rate of one mile a day, and the lumbering. A Washington territory company had been organized to build a line from Walla Walla to Portland.

Alaska advices to April 11th note margin arrivals at Sitka in four vessels including three steamers. The departures were two steamers, one schooner, and two schooners, and one sloop. Nearly all arrivals brought passengers and considerable freight. Business at Sitka was strengthening. Several new buildings were being put up, and the town presents a busy and improving appearance. Several sailing

CINCINNATI, May 2. The Enquirer carried the following dispatch:

STAN FRANCISCO, April 30. The Democratic convention today instructed their delegates to the national convention to vote for Wright as California's first choice for presidency. Should no advance be made by the delegates, the delegates were instructed to unite with the friends of Tilton in the Northwest in demanding his nomination. The Enquirer's editorial is paying the national debt is sweeping before it, California will give twenty the majority for Pendleton and greenback. The Pacific coast is all right for the old Union. The constitution of our fathers."

MEMPHIS.

THE CONFEDERATE DEAD.
MEMPHIS, May 2. The commemorative services for the Confederate dead at Elmwood surpassed any other rallies. Gen. H. Smith, who fell at Vicksburg, and Gen. Forrest, were interred, and flowers were on the graves of all. Speeches were made by Hon. Landon F. Haynes and Col. W. H. White, and an original ode was read. There were over ten thousand people present.

THE RACES.
The races to-day were the largest in the history of the meeting. The weather delightful and the track in fine condition. The first match was for $200; hills, won by Magazzini, beating Viola, U. S. 2. The second, association purse of $200.

[illegible]

ATLANTA, May 2.—The Southern Pro-testation held a convention here on the 10th inst.

ly Telegram to the Demoral.
DESTRUCTIVE FIRE—DISCOVERY OF A DEREK MAN.
PITTSBURG, May 2. The Montana
Works, located one mile from this city, totally destroyed by fire this morning together with 1,200 barrels of oil. Loss be-$20,000 and $30,000. Insured for $11,000.
Frame buildings adjoining were almost destroyed.

The body of Anthony Freyvoage, a known merchant tailor, who mysteridisappeared last January, was found
day in the Ohio river near Sewickley.
let hole in the temple leaves little doubt
he was murdered.

PENNSYLVANIA.

By Telegraph to the Democrat.

LANCASTER ELECTION—COMFORT FOR RADICALS.

LANCASTER, May 2.—The city election place yesterday. The Democratic major for 1715 Auditor is 31. There is a crushing loss on Mayor last year of 187. The Republicans gain eight members Council, which makes a tie vote in joint. One branch of the Council is Republican, three majority—the first time in years. The Republicans are jubilant are parading the streets with a band of

Boils tend to purify the blood, strain on the system, calm the nerves, restore the tempo and beautify the appearance.

◆◆ A Boston paper states that their snow drifts five feet deep on the stage from Shelburne Falls to the town of N. in northwestern Massachusetts.

